

CHILLICOTHE, OHIO, SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 2, 1958

Finishing touches on the pipes for the new First Presbyterial Church organ were being made Friday by Maurice Plog (left) and Ed Notter of the Wicks Organ Co., Highland, Ill. More than 2,000 pipes, ranging in length from one-half inch to more than 20 feet, were placed in two soundproof chambers at the rear of the chancel. (Gazette Photo by Robert D. West).
